Dear Myra Lichman-Fields,

Many thanks for sending your play, AN IRISH SONATA: A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF TURLOUGH O' CAROLAN to the Abbey Theatre where it has now received a number of readings in the Literary Department. I would also like to apologise for the extended delay in response and to thank you for your patience in bearing with it.

I hope you will not be too disappointed to learn that, having received considerable attention, it was decided that AN IRISH SONATA: A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF TURLOUGH O' CAROLAN will not proceed to production in either the Abbey or Peacock Theatre.

However, many thanks again for giving us the opportunity to read your work and continued best wishes with your writing.

With kind regards,

Judy Friel
